LUXE DESTINATION WEDDINGS ANNOUNCES TORONTO COUPLE AS WINNERS OF ENGAGEMENT CONTEST

NEW YORK (November 15, 2007) – LUXE Destination Weddings has announced Christine Best and Shane Priest as winners of the LUXE Engagement Contest. The betrothed couple will enjoy a lavish weekend in Toronto to begin planning their destination wedding with LUXE. They'll later jet-set to The Caves in Negril, one of Jamaica's most romantic retreats.

"Some couples can be overwhelmed by the amount of work that goes into a destination wedding – that's where LUXE comes in," said LUXE co-founder Tara Soloway. "LUXE's team of experts takes on every task, letting the couple enjoy their ride to the altar. We're delighted to offer our expert wedding coordinating services to Christine and Shane."

The LUXE Engagement Contest prize begins with a planning trip to Toronto. LUXE will welcome Christine and Shane with a champagne meeting and the services of its Opulence Package. With plans for their dream destination wedding underway, the couple will go on to enjoy Toronto's finest offerings.

Accommodations at the Drake Hotel, lunch at Kiwi Restaurant, dinner at Blowfish Restaurant and VIP treatment at Century Room Nightclub will set the scene. Relaxation is on hand with a couples' treatment at the Hammam Spa, which will help make smiles brighter for an engagement photo shoot by LUXE photographer Richard Emmanuel.

Later on, the winning couple will jet-set on a LUXE retreat to scout out Jamaica's most romantic resort, The Caves in Negril. Four nights will showcase this sensuous haven's potential to be their luxury wedding destination. Dramatic cliffs, mesmerizing ocean views and unobtrusive service are the ideal setting for the betrothed. Fusing all of nature's elements, including the sounds of the ocean, the feel of tropical flowers in a hot bath, the reflection of soft, glimmering lighting against a loved one and palatable gourmet dining – The Caves personifies relaxed romance.
